

How long do I have to use PEMF to see results?

The length of therapy depends on the patient's age, duration of the disease, and general lifestyle. The first noticeable therapeutic improvements may be noticed within four to six weeks for 88% of patients, when the basic plan is followed consistently and regularly.